. . . Nineteen hundred fifty-two

F O R E W O R D

Classes, organizations, athletics and "just fun" are vital to that intangible quality of school spirit which we seek to portray in these pages as the motivating force in all that we are doing to build a stronger school today and a better world tomorrow.

Firm in our belief that where there is no building, stagnation and decay must reign, we thankfully recognize that we are builders . . . anchored to the past, nurtured in the present, geared to the future.

*Mrs. Ethel
V. Crawley*

TO HONOR

MRS. ETHEL V. CRAWLEY, whose inspiring personality and warm friendship have so enriched our lives, the Senior Class affectionately dedicates to her the 1952 Cocoon. Because she is a wise architect and a true builder with a zest for life and faith in us, we gratefully acknowledge her influence. Her ever-ready smile, unfailing sympathy, and wise counsel have endeared her to us as a teacher and a friend.

OF OUR PRESENT CONSTRUCTIONS . . . .

UNITED BY LOYALTY TO TRADITION . . . .

AND FAITH IN HUMAN PROGRESS . . . .

If the buildings pictured here could speak, they would tell a story of challenge and achievement. The "old" building, pictured above at the right, would speak with pride of the hundreds of Wilson young people who have trod its halls since the big front doors swung open in January, 1923, to admit the nearly three hundred students who were to attend "Wilson High School." It would recall the splendid records achieved by that first group and emulated by succeeding groups of students. Its tale would bring to mind Mr. Charles L. Coon, pioneer educator, who was its first superintendent, and Mr. J. Shephard Bryan, its first principal. A highlight in the story would be the completion of the auditorium wing, pictured at the right, where twenty-one graduates of the class of 1923 held their commencement exercises.

OUR SCHOOL REFLECTS US

Memorable events of the second year would include acquisition of the gymnasium wing, shown at the left, and of the present athletic field, which was cleared of its final cotton crop in time for fall football practice. Further reminiscing would bring to mind that solemn occasion, shortly after Mr. Coon's death in 1927, when the school was renamed "The Charles L. Coon High School."

The story would mention no further details of significant structural additions until 1951, when the "new" building, pictured above at the left, became available. A credit to school administrators and to the people of Wilson, it marked an important step in a building campaign designed to care for increasing enrollment and an expanding educational program.

AS WE BUILD TOGETHER

Will we ever get the RADIOGRAM to press?

IN OUR SCHOOL

Serving Each Other . . .

*Planning new exhibits keeps everyone busy.
Bought a ticket to the Fayetteville game?*

*Our P.A. advises us "when and where."
Moving books is a spring and fall routine.*

Architects in their function, our trustees and superintendent make many policies and innovations vital to our welfare. Confident that public schools can free this nation from the bonds of ignorance, they have devoted much time and effort to public school education. That which we are is a tribute to their planning; that which we become is the result of their foresight.

OUR PRINCIPAL

MR. G. S. WILLARD, JR.

With sympathy, patience and understanding, Mr. Willard has fostered a spirit which is a motivating force in us and our school. Alert to our potentialities and to the possibilities for continued progress, he ever encourages us to strive toward the realization of all that is best within us. Occupied by a multitude of administrative duties, he yet is never too busy to talk with the most bewildered freshman or the most confident senior; from his personal counsel each has benefited.

TO STRIVE

INDUSTRIAL ARTS . . .

"A bandsaw beats an axe," operator D. Smith assures interested onlookers D. Matthews, Mr. Rose, T. Strickland, W. Winstead and B. West.

DRAMATICS . . .

Mr. Swink encourages property workers J. Howard, E. Woodard, B. Rice, C. Worley, A. Poythress, Y. Landen and B. Deans in their labors.

HOME ECONOMICS . . .

Sewing companions E. Walton, M. Totty and Mrs. Jones give warm approval to M. Parker's hem adjustment technique on J. Thompson's skirt.

CHEMISTRY . . .

The fascinating world of the physical sciences opens to R. Ward, M. Herring and F. Shingleton as Mr. Delbridge checks their experiment.

TO LEARN

SHORTHAND . . .

"Funny curlicues" make sense as Miss Moore's group work to become proficient in office skills. It all may lead to a wonderful job—someday soon.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION . . .

No wallflowers here! Miss Knowles and Mr. Grad bring their classes together frequently to teach poise and social graces on the dance floor.

TYPING . . .

The relentless hand of Miss Potter's timer moves on as her typists tap out a speed test. It's hard work that pays in future dividends.

SPANISH . . .

Doll costuming and gay posters in Mrs. Patterson's class acquaint S. Dixon, J. Moore, A. Poythress and J. Williams with Spanish culture.

TO LABOR

GEOGRAPHY . . .

Munsan, Iran, Egypt—these words have a real significance for Miss Gardner, G. Townend, S. Morris, J. Newton, S. Jones and B. Moore.

BIOLOGY . . .

The camera invades the laboratory to film the microscope studies of J. Barnes, W. Franklin, J. Dunn, Miss Stephenson and J. Allen.

LATIN . . .

A "dead language" becomes alive in Miss Noble's hands as she reviews Latin notebooks prepared by L. Thomas, W. Franklin and M. Brinkley.

WORLD HISTORY . . .

Headline news of vital interest dramatizes the bulletin board, inspected here by Mrs. Wooten, J. Liles, C. Tyndall, C. Bradley and J. Childs.

TO BUILD

ALGEBRA . . .

What's the unknown quality? Mr. Johnston poses the puzzling question, and all his students wrinkle their brows in deep concentration.

BOOKKEEPING . . .

Adding is easy! Miss Brown and F. Mason look on with approval while S. Barton demonstrates her calculating machine skill—a "must" in office practice.

ENGLISH . . .

A baseball spelling match in Miss Thackston's class halts when pitcher R. Morris, basemen T. Fenn and M. House, and batter P. Barnes demand an umpire.

BAND . . .

"And the music comes out here," Mr. Eller confidently assures aspiring musicians H. Dunlap, F. Jefferson, D. Llewellyn and J. Jarman.

Something new has been added —imposing new quarters for our store, no less! Operated as a school service, the store offers school supplies at bargain prices.

SCHOOL STORE . . . . LIBRARY . . . .

Another book? Miss Sykes and Mrs. Woodard help Billy Nichols and Peggy Keen choose.

Every day is a busy one for Mrs. W. A. Brandon, school secretary, and assistant Evelyn Baker.

There is no let-up for Mrs. Tomlinson, our cafeteria manager, when hungry students file by.

The routine of Mrs. Quarles, school nurse, gets under way as Shirley Thomas and Rebekah Robbins report.

OFFICE . . . . CAFETERIA . . . . INFIRMARY

OUR DEANS

For the unfailing guidance of our deans we are grateful. Above, Miss Noble, the Dean of Girls, is pictured with her student staff. Left to right, they are: C. Worley, S. Davis, M. Hadge, Miss Noble, J. Deans, E. Thorne, F. Dawson, L. Bissett, J. Gay. Sara Jane is shown as she collects an absence slip. Below, Mr. Eller, the Dean of Boys, consults with student assistants M. Cherry and D. Gurkin. Marie is shown checking the enrollment file.

OUR COUNSELORS

Our counselors aid us in making those important decisions about the future—shall it be college or an immediate job? Above, Mr. Woodard and Mr. Hyde consult over the military service regulations so vital to senior boys; left, they help J. Thompson and F. Deans with next year's class schedule. Below, Mrs. Crawley sorts college catalogs for reference use; at the left, she advises N. Webb and M. Herring about entrance requirements.

JUNIOR-SENIOR

With its "Old South" theme, our Junior-Senior Banquet was a great success. Here, Deans and Howard add a touch of glamour to the floor show.

BUILDING BLOCKS

M. Jones and R. Joyner admire class rings.

The senior class meets.

J. Deans and E. Woodard joke at halftime.

1948-1949 . . . As freshmen, we laid our foundations.

1949-1950 . . . Next, as sophomores, we added bricks with the aid of officers E. Woodard, M. Thomas, P. Winstead and L. McKeel. Famous "firsts" were class organization, the Sweetheart Show and our prom.

1950-1951 . . . Then, as Juniors, we watched the structure strengthen under officers C. Webster, O. Barnhill, J. Deans and J. Strickland. New class rings, Tag Day and an "Old South" banquet for the seniors kept us busy.

1951-1952 . . . Finally, as seniors, we saw the construction near completion. Student body leaders, we published the Cocoon, sponsored a successful stunt night and attended the Junior-Senior Banquet. With the joys of graduation came pride in past accomplishments and renewed confidence that "the future is the reflection of our present constructions."

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

Seated: L. Bissett, R. Cobb, C. Bardin, J. Deans, M. Herring.

Standing: J. Williams, J. Hill, C. Webster, H. Epps, Mr. Hyde.

STUNT NIGHT COMMITTEE

Seated: J. Williams, R. Cobb, L. Bissett and Harry Epps, Co-Chairmen; J. Hill, J. Deans.

Standing: C. Webster, J. Taylor.

J. Taylor, E. Woodard, B. Rice, M. Hadge, D. Gurkin, S. Hayes, C. Bardin, L. Bass, Y. Landen, J. Deans celebrate as Cocoon Staff and superlatives meet.

SENIOR

How bright and happy were our hearts
As we entered our school that day,
Hoping to fulfill each ambition
And gain knowledge in every way.
Freshmen we were in a bright new world,

For our plans we had to lay
That would lead us down a prosperous road

To a future bright and gay.

And then as we entered our second year
And continued to map our charts,
All our work began to take form
And came straight from our youthful hearts.

When some true friend was in need of help

And was trying to get a start,
All in the class were right on hand
To help him do his part.

It's hard to choose our class mascots from this little group of well-wishers.

At our cake sale M. Herring, P. Winstead, J. Gay, E. Thorne, B. Barnes, G. Davis, S. Davis line up for their customer.

SOLILOQUY

The Junior class was next to come;
Our affairs were doing well—
Though after climbing up so high,
Some by the wayside fell.
The rest kept hard at their numerous tasks
And of progress great could tell
As they worked to carry out their plan
In achievements great to excel.

“Dignified Seniors” they call us now,
For this is our very last year
To finish well the important work
That we have started here.
The time draws close for us to part,
And commencement is very near;
We’ll leave its halls but will ne’er forget
This school we love so dear.

EDITORIAL STAFF

The 1952 Cocoon is a concrete expression of our labors in your behalf—the means by which to justify your faith in us.

For many months we have dogged your footsteps to capture your most casual moment; we have startled you by demanding the correct spelling of your name; we have threatened when you evaded our camera. The work has been demanding and rewarding.

THE KEY CLUB

Eight years of building! This is the enviable record of the Key Club. With goals inspired by the Kiwanis Club, its sponsor, the club's role is a vital one.

All of us are familiar with its work in sponsoring traditional "White Christmas" programs and in leading worthwhile school drives. Less known, perhaps, are the civic contributions of its members as they label classroom doors for the convenience of new students, collect and distribute magazines to the local sanatorium, and address Christmas cards to hospitalized veterans. Such activities make it a strong contender again this year for the Dr. Francis Morton Fox Award, which was presented to the club in 1948 for the best achievement record in Key Club International.

THE KEYETTE CLUB

Just half as old as its brother organization, the Keyette Club nevertheless has achieved an outstanding record for service in our school and in the community.

Motivated by much the same goals as those which inspire the Key Club, Keyettes annually give concrete proof of their concern for community well-being. Their preparation of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the needy is traditional, as is their interest in patients of the Mt. Sinai Hospital, who have been "adopted" as a special project. In the school, their sponsorship of the girls' intramural basketball teams is a vital force in building sportsmanship and school morale. A tea to honor their mothers and work with the Wilson Kennel Club in sponsoring a dog show also help to keep them busy.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Betty J. Wooten, this year's Wrangler's Club has achieved a most creditable record. Organized late in the school year, the group made a concentrated effort to acquaint themselves with the national high school debating topic: Resolved "that all American citizens should be subject to conscription for essential service in time of war." So successful was their activity that both the affirmative and negative teams were victorious in the triangular debates against Kinston and Rocky Mount. This resulted in both teams entering the district contest at Meredith College; here they were defeated by more experienced debating groups. Members chosen to the Wilson affirmative team were Jackie Lewis and Margery Newton; the negative team included Charles Webster and Lynn Bissette, with Donnie McLain and Stevie Yionoulis as alternates.

Sharing the reputation for safety and dependability which is associated with the North Carolina school bus operators, our drivers are the backbone of our school's transportation service. # CHOIR

Messengers of hope and joy, our choir members are present on all those solemn and memorable occasions which dramatize the school year.

"Come, Ye Thankful People, Come," they chorused as we watched the scenes of the first Thanksgiving enacted; their "Joy to the World" echoed in a thousand hearts as the Bethlehem story unfolded. The simple dignity of chapel programs, the gay spirit of group singing, the nostalgic happiness of graduation—all are enhanced by the presence of the blue-robed figures who give so unstintingly of themselves and their melody.

VARSITY BAND

Strike up the band! In their blue and gold uniforms, preceded by spirited drum major and majorettes, Varsity Band members are on the march! Whether the scene is the football field, the auditorium stage or the courthouse steps, past performances of the group have led us to expect excellent entertainment and a good show.

From that awe-inspiring moment when their rendition of the National Anthem stirs the great crowd to its heart, the band members are very much in evidence at our football games. The ingenuity and skill which they contribute to the half-time extravaganzas result in a show that keeps spectators "glued to their seats." Their appearance at pep rallies, assembly programs and downtown parades is hailed with enthusiasm, and their annual spring concert is a red-letter occasion.

THE BLUEPRINTS

ATHLETICS . . . which develop morale and team spirit essential to building.

COACHING STAFF

Coach Henry L. Madden has headed our athletic personnel for six years as Director of Athletics. He has met outstanding success in his efforts to build strong teams from small and inexperienced material. His work at the Charles L. Coon High School has resulted in many strong and feared conference teams.

W. I. Dickens, a veteran of eight years' service on our coaching staff, earns our praise for his skill in molding strong junior varsity football and basketball teams. Since 1950, when he was called to fill the shoes of Coach Red Benton, he has given a fine performance with our varsity baseball teams.

Coach Carl Grad, a newcomer to the athletic staff, brought with him new ideas to improve athletic participation. Some of his projects include the introduction of touch football, boys' intramural basketball, and dancing in gym classes. As assistant football coach, he has proved his competency.

MR. H. L. MADDEN

Our feminine athletes are very capably managed by Miss Virginia Knowles. Directing no less than thirteen girls' intramural basketball teams and our girls' tennis team, Miss Knowles consistently has produced teams of championship caliber.

MONOGRAM CLUB

A momentous event in the lives of our athletes comes when they are privileged for the first time to wear the "W" on their sweaters—a proud symbol which signifies that they have earned their letter in one of the Varsity sports. Further, it indicates that they are members of the athletes' own organization—the Monogram Club. With a history studded with names of star athletes who have gone on to earn their places in college and professional sports, the Monogram Club restricts its membership to the "letter" men. The coveted "W's" are distributed annually to new members at the organization's spring banquet, where initiates are advised that the club exists primarily to further the ideals of good sportsmanship between the opposing teams and our own players. Mr. H. L. Madden is the club adviser.

FOOTBALL 1951

CO-CAPTAINS

The co-captains for the Cyclones this year were Teddy Barnes and Luther McKeel. Teddy was the fullback and did an exceptionally good job at plowing over would-be tacklers.

Luke was the wingback and did some very good work on reverse plays. He was injured for a great part of the season; but because of his outstanding play, he was chosen to two All-Eastern clubs. The loss of these two boys will be felt greatly by next year's team.

RESUME

Coach Madden's gridmen got just a taste of the schedule facing them when they lost to the Kinston Red Devils 14-0 in the opening game of the 1951 season. In their second game, against Goldsboro, the Cyclones handed the Earthquakes a 21-14 loss. After this win, the Cycles lost to Raleigh 20-0, following that with a hard-won 7-6 victory over Edwards Military Institute.

Their fifth game saw the Cyclones traveling to Durham, only to be turned back 26-13. The next contest, against Smithfield, resulted in a 33-20 victory. The following week the Cyclones again took to the road, this time to Fayetteville, where the Bulldogs won by a 32-0 score.

In the Wilmington game, played in the cold, rain and mud, the Cyclones took a stinging 34-0 setback at the hands of the larger club. At the Wilson Homecoming game against Rocky Mount, the Wilson team was handed a 20-6 loss, thereby losing the Shelton Looms trophy for the second consecutive year.

By way of summary, the Cyclones scored 80 points against their opponents' 186. These figures do not consider, of course, the spirit and pluck of our players as they fought against heavier and more experienced teams. Averaging only 146 pounds in the line and 155 pounds in the backfield, the Cyclones were further plagued by injuries to several key members of the club.

CHEERLEADERS

VARSITY

Standing: Webb Miller, Head Cheerleader.

JUNIOR

Kneeling: Peggy Pappas, Jackie Barnes, Carole Brooks and Dorothy Anderson, Head Cheerleaders: Elaine Baltzegar, Lane Thomas.

Standing: Donnie McLain, Haywood Edmundson, Charles Poston, Billy Minschew.

We want a touchdown! We want a touchdown! The chant rumbles through the stadium, reaching the topmost benches as spectators are caught up in the excitement inspired by whirling dervishes in white sweaters. We long shall cherish the memory of these, our cheerleaders, for their enthusiasm is a contagious spirit which wrings victory from defeat, loyalty from apathy.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Running from the "T" formation, the Juclones, under Coach Dickens, were victorious in four games during the 1951 gridiron season. With two wins over Rocky Mount, by 18-6 and 13-6, the Juclones also defeated Raleigh in a 6-0 win and trampled Tarboro with a 34-0 score. Losses came at the hands of Goldsboro in 20-0 and 12-6 scores and in the contest with Wendell, in which the Juclones were on the losing end of the 27-0 score.

First row: J. Watkins, T. Strickland, J. Jarman, K. Williams, P. Jefferson, B. Trevathan, B. Draughan, D. Pipkin, J. Creekmore, D. Felton.

Second row: A. Thomas, D. Lamm, N. Pridgen, E. Spivey, L. Faulkner, R. Morris, W. Clark, D. Wheeler, C. Kinnev, J. Holdford, J. Boyette.

Third row: Manager H. Powell, S. Yionoulis, D. Barnes, J. Thompson, F. Deans, P. Blake, B. Rand, A. Moore, J. Leach, J. Shadle, B. Clegg, Manager R. Williams.

Right: Coach W. I. Dickens is explaining a football maneuver to N. Pridgen and D. Lamm.

Kneeling: Norris Williams, Billy Stone, Managers.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The close of the 1952 basketball season saw the Cyclones headed for the State AAA Tournament in Durham, after having placed fourth in the Eastern AAA Conference. Performing gallantly in the first day of tournament play, Coach Madden's boys were defeated by highly-favored Greensboro in a 59-48 score. The 1952 top scorers were Richard Ward and Ed Woodard, with 284 points and 225 points respectively. A 1953 championship promises to result from this season's experience.

Woodard foils Rogers' field goal.

Matthews blocks Worrell.

Seated: Henry Powell, Manager.

Kneeling: Keith Williams, Stevie Yionoulis, Ray Morris, Clarence Nichols, Pinky Jefferson, James Creekmore.

Standing: Don Lamm, Johnny Thompson, Bruce Rose, Freddie Deans, Joe Jones, Donald Wheeler.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Paced by Freddie Deans, with 194 points, and Paul Blake, with 188 points, Coach Irv Dickens' inexperienced Jueline squad weathered a tough season but gained much of that valuable "know-how"—which should result in varsity status for five of its members. Freddie Deans, Paul Blake, Bill Rand, Joe Jones and Clarence Nichols are among those who show promise of considerable action with the 1953 Cyclones. This season ended with a record of seven wins and fourteen losses.

Thompson is due a free shot!

BASEBALL .

The 1951 Cyclones, weakened by the loss of many former stars, rose above the problems of an inexperienced team to place third in the Eastern AAA Conference. The outstanding batters of the season were Luke McKeel, .490; Bill Simpson, .378; and Bud Etheridge, .360. Teddy Barnes, Billy Boone and Joe Jones were top hurlers on the pitching staff. McKeel led with a total of 43 bases, while Etheridge was the clutch hitter, with 25 runs batted in. Named for the second consecutive year to the All-State team, McKeel served as a 1951 co-captain. Coach Dickens felt justifiable pride in his team as the season closed with Cyclone victories over Fayetteville and Wilmington.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

When classes are over and most of the student body is gone, the after-school quiet is broken by sounds of bouncing balls, shrill whistles and much laughter in the gym. This is a surprise to no one, for girls' intramural basketball is a well-rooted tradition in our school. Sponsored by the Keyette Club, the sport has brought out a record one hundred eighty-five participants this year. Miss Knowles, their coach, is kept busy with the competitive games of the thirteen teams.

TEAM CAPTAINS REPORT TO COACH

Kneeling: B. Sharpe, E. Benton. Seated: P. Cherry, J. Edwards, C. Brooks, A. Moore, E. Herring. Standing: J. Barnes, L. Thomas, E. Spain, N. Rogers, S. Davis, J. Creekmore, Miss Knowles.

Below, left: Spain hopes to get that ball to Bovette or Blount in spite of guards Batten, Tomlinson and Stith.

BUILDERS IN REVIEW

Drum major Fields leads majorettes out for the half-time. Kneeling are Roberson, Landen, Sharpe. Standing are Brinkley, Lamm, Bass, Moore, Barnes, Williamson, Fields.

Student Council President Tommy Williford presents "prize" to the "worst-dressed" at the Sadie Hawkins dance—Ann Nichols and Luke McKeel.

The Key Club band furnishes sweet music at the club party for the faculty.

On the field and on the bench, the Cyclones are ready for action.

Spirited games of basketball brighten the long winter evenings.

Choir members E. Yionoulis, B. Dillon, B. Johnson and B. Ellis are accompanied here by pianist P. Winstead.

Our book is ending. In its pages are depicted the ideals, the architects, the builders, the blueprints and the buildings. There remain only the observers—loyal patrons upon whom our school can depend for encouragement. The record of another school year has been chronicled and will not alter, but that which it portrays will go on—the challenge of building will ever inspire the builders, who believe so implicitly that “the future is the reflection of our present constructions.”

J. Howard and M. Finch provide Dramatics Club fun and nonsense.

Boosters L. Bissett, T. Williford and E. Herring visit the farm to capture a bird for their “Turkeys for Touchdowns” campaign.
